

Parthenia Johnson

A New Negro Melody by Will Marion Cook
the Composer of "In Dahomey"

PHOTO BY MARCEAU
N.Y.

As Sung by Abbie Mitchell

Published by Permission of Will Marion Cook
Owner of the Copyright.

J.B.E. D.D.

PARTHENIA JOHNSING

Words by HUGH MORTON

Music by WILLIAM MARION COOK

Brightly

1. In me you see the prod - uct of the lat - est fe - male
 2. My Pa - pa's rep - u - ta - tion as the lead - er of his fad, Of high - er ed - u - ca - tion quite a quan - ti - ty I've set, And my high - er ed - u - ca - tion makes me quite the so - cial

Copyright 1902 by William Marion Cook.

had. Je parle Fran - cais, Und spre - ch: Deutsch, Ach, pet. At ev' - ry high - tone gath - er - ing, And at Ja! Out tout au - fait! But En - - glish has the ev' - ry swell af - fair, As soon as I step

rit.
 dear - - est charms, when I - hear peo - ple say:
 in the hall you hear the folks de - clare:

rit.

CHORUS

Ev'ry one loves a Par - the - nia John - sing, Kase she is so fair!

a tempo

Ev'-ry one says a Par - the - nia John - sing's 'way be-yond com - -pare! Ev-ah you see a Par - the - nia John - sing pran cin' down..... the street, You'se boun' to say..... Um -

-um, Parthe - nia, My! You sho'is..... sweet! sweet!.....