The Sociologist, the Philanthropist, the Race Leader are not unaware of the New Negro, but they are at a loss to account for him . . . the new spirit is awake in these masses and under the very eyes of the professional observer is transforming what has been a perennial problem into the progressive phases of contemporary Negro life."

H. L. Mencken: "This book is a phenomenon of immense significance."

Heywood Brown: "The most beautiful book I have yet seen."

Carl Van Doren: "The art of the New Negro has now a chance to be built up on a firm critical foundation."
