& Thick, Soft, Lustrous Hair

Not A Matter Of Chance

There is really no secret at all about soft, lustrous hair which is so much admired by both sexes. Long, beautiful hair always wins instant admiration. Your hair is the most striking feature you possess and its soft luster brightens the charm of your complexion.

The use of Lehman's Hair Dressing, a medicated and perfumed pomade, will make your hair grow long, soft and beautiful. You can then dress it just as you want to. It is so easy to use and so effective. It keeps the scalp and prevents falling hair by killing the hair-ender, "Dandruff."

If you value appearance you will value Lehman's Hair Dressing, which is sold at most all drug stores and toilet counters at 25¢ a can or postpaid on receipt of price.

ARTICLE XIV. CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.
Citizenship Rights Not to Be Abridged.
1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

REPUBLICANS "OFF" McJIMSEY.
According to a statement through the daily press, the leaders of the Republican Party of St. Louis, an "OFF" E. E. McJimsey, a candidate for Governor of this State, whose machine has been tottering for some time.

We must confess that we have been unable to decide whether such actions were for good or bad, in view of the fact that Mr. McJimsey has been a chronic seker after the gubernatorial honors for some years. Therefore, at first sight, it seems a little bad for the party leaders of St. Louis to desert him right through here. But, further consideration of his case, it may be better for the party leaders at this time to acknowledge Mr. McJimsey's weakness, than have the people to register their sentiments at the polls on primary day.

We stated through these columns, following Mr. McJimsey's speech and announcement of his platform, that we were disappointed, in that it was weak and backed in those broad principles and comprehensions of the big questions of the hour. So we are not at all surprised at the party leaders, the machine of St. Louis falling in line with our statement, notwithstanding that fact at the time they said Mr. McJimsey was all right.

We hope, however, that Mr. McJimsey will not take "cold feet" and quit the race for Governor. There are always some discouraging things for the man who aspires. He should continue his race and let the people tell him the story and he will, no doubt, be better satisfied.

Different is the case of Dwight Davis, the St. Louis machine candidate for the United States Senator. If the party leaders "get off" Davis, and he quits the race, it wouldn't look quite so bad as in McJimsey's case. "Off" Davis is not a chronic office seker. But, however, we would suggest to the party leaders in St. Louis, that while they are jumping, better jump off Davis for United States Senator, for he is weak and fails to measure up to the man we need at this time in the highest council of the Nation.

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The Y. M. C. A. Department Young Men's Christian Association of this city, will launch its annual membership campaign, April 19 to 26.

The reports of the first year's work in their new building, show that the men and boys of this city have been greatly benefited. Over four hundred members were enrolled during the first year. The only reason for this was the fact that the Y. M. C. A. is a place where men and boys can get the best of everything.

is not a capricious and idle whim of the hour. It is the manifested spirit of the new negro, the negro who must dare and ever dare; who has resolved, come what will, to abolish once and for all the Americanisms of lynching, Jim Crowism, segregation, peonage, political disfranchisement, miserable educational systems in the South and a score of other social abuses that make America's claim of democracy a joke and a travesty to the outside world.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of our darling daughter and mother, Stella Stapleton, who departed this life five years ago.
In Nelson Cemetery calm sleeping.
Where the flowers gently wave;
Lies the one we loved so dearly.
In her silent, lonely grave.
Peaceful be your sleep, dear Stella.
It is sweet to breathe your name.
In life we loved you most dearly.
In death we do the same.
Sadly missed by your mother and children.
Mrs. S. M. McMertry (mother); children, Alzeta Stapleton, Naoma and Zonora Washington.

IN MEMORIAM.
In memory of our dear husband and father, Chas. Busby, who departed this life April 11, 1917.
Father, we miss you everywhere.
Miss our advice, love and care.
A faithful father, kind and true.
We always pray and think of you.
You are not forgotten in our minds.
To us you were so good and kind;
How our hearts are filled with pain.
We hope some day we will meet again.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Sergeant Homer Taylor, who died in France, April 12, 1918. We could not realize what was said. When the message came that he was dead.
But you, our dear son and brother, Had to go like many others:
And give your life and all To save our country.

TO "VALENS."
Ever I think of you, out there alone In some far field of France, with crosses now.
And at the first, I held my earthly all Just that white, pitiful cross, so poor and small.
Then to the depths of utter, bleak despair Flashed the clear knowledge that you were not there!
You could not be—the bright, brave

Through the Eyes of Youth

What a tendency there is to discourage youthful couples against extravagance as they start out together in married life. "Wait until you are as old as your parents, then spend your money for fine furniture. Most anything will do for the first few years." "Better save your money, children. You don't know what's going to happen to this country after a while." These are samples of expressions you often hear.

There isn't a single person connected with the management of The Only McNichols who believes in willful extravagance, but as we grow older, sometimes we find ourselves misinterpreting the meaning of the word when we set ourselves up as judges over the younger gentry. For instance, what we might call extravagance they term as investment. And the funny thing about it is that about half the time they are right.

In the case of furniture, let's carry our thoughts back to the time when we ourselves went through the same experiences. What are our first purchases worth now, if indeed they exist at all? Suppose high grade, correct, refined selections of furniture like you see in The Only McNichols' had been made instead, even though some sacrifices were necessary to meet the payments. There would have been pride of possession through the years with a permanent investment yielding pleasure and comfort today.

People age only as they think age. If you, gentle reader, are still youthful in years, the spirit is already there but, if many milestones have been passed, then look at the pleasure of furnishing your home in the right way—through the eyes of youth. This store stands ready to help you in every possible way.
