ANTE-BELLUM NEGRO.

The Ante-Bellum Negro made a lively long to the control of the cont would let his master know, and thro these mediums, he would come out on Sundays with master's regalla, look-ing as dignified as a prince. The New Negro caught the spirit and added intelligence and shift to every fibre and today demands the same things on his merit. The Ante-Bel-

Special to The Negro Star: Since I have decided to be subscriber of your paper, I wish to ask space to say a few words about our church and its great love and sympathy towards out love and sympathy towards our Pastor. On the 16th of February we were fortunate to ceiserte a pound party in behalf of our pastor, consisting of different things, amounting to about 100 or more pounds. Mrs. Roberts Mason was the author of the pound party into Mt. Ara M. B. Church and is one of Mt. Ara M. B. Church and is one of the very popular members. The pas-tor says he has never before been so royally entertained as he was on that night. Rev. A. R. Cox is a great leader for his Race.
