

Chicago Marble Champion—Harmony Kings—N. Y. Dancers

K. C. AMERICAN PHOTO

LARGEST BIBLE CLASS—Non-sectarian Bible class of the Paseo Y. M. C. A., Kansas City, Mo., which is sponsored by Rev. Joseph Gomez, pastor of Allen Chapel A. M. E. church. They claim it is the largest in the country.

BURY ALDERMAN'S WIFE—The bronze casket, trimmed with silver and gold, bearing the body of the late Mrs. Julia E. Anderson, wife of Louis B. Anderson, alderman of the Second ward, as it was borne to the grave in Lincoln cemetery Wednesday afternoon, May 20. Pallbearers on the left: Dr. A. Wilberforce Williams, Col. John R. Marshall and Attorney N. K. McGill. In the right: Claude A. Barnett, Attorney Harold Mosely and David Manson.

BOICHI SUWAMI PHOTO

DANCERS WIN PRAISE—Edna Guy and Hemsley Winfield, who starred recently in New York city in a program of primitive and modern dance classics at the Mansfield theater. The affair was given under the auspices of the New Negro Art theater and was very well attended by both races.

GEORGE F. PAUL PHOTO

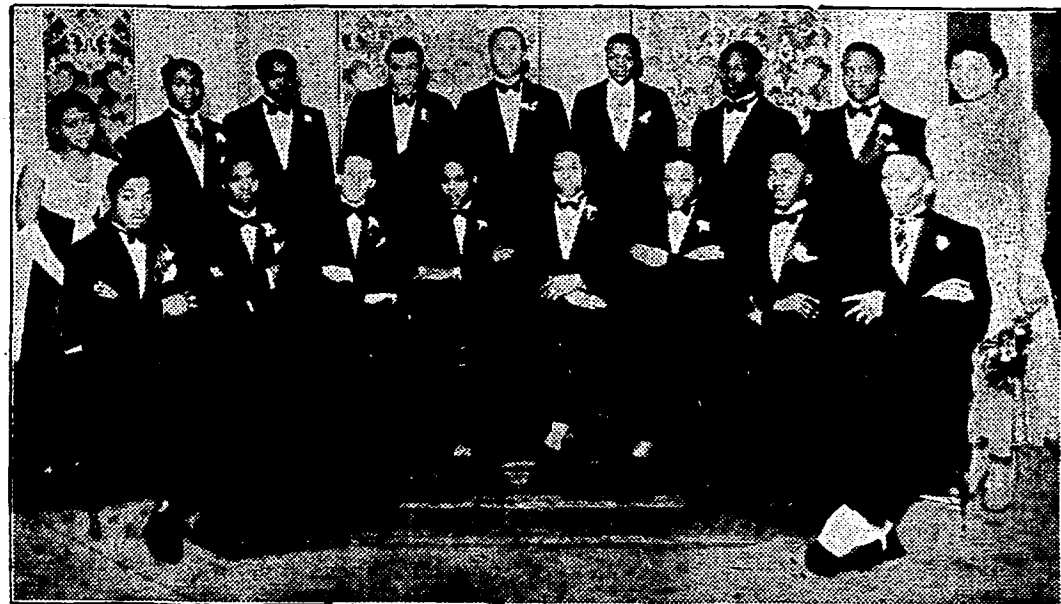

AFRICANS IN BERLIN—Several representatives of the celebrated Sara-Kaba tribe from the heart of the African jungles have been brought to Berlin, where they will be on exhibit for several weeks. They are shown here being received by Director Hack of the Berlin zoo, who will have charge of them. The home of this tribe is in the far interior of Africa, between Lake Echad and the Congo.

SOLOIST—Merrill Dames, New York tenor, and soloist at the Riverside Baptist church erected by John D. Rockefeller. He is the only member of our Race singing in the choir.

PLEADS FOR SONS—Mrs. Ada Wright, mother of two boys sentenced to die in Alabama, makes a plea for funds for her two sons and the seven others. She declares all are innocent. She spoke in Chicago on May 19.

SENATORS CIVIC CLUB which recently celebrated its second anniversary with a formal at the Vincennes hotel. Seated, left to right: Oscar Petite, business manager; M. J. Henderson, recording secretary; L. L. Summers, president; Roosevelt L. Robertson, sponsor; R. R. Everette, vice president; Ray Wilkins, assistant secretary; Wm. Pinkney, reporter; Seben Gutter, sergeant-at-arms. Standing: Mrs. C. S. Dozier, hostess; C. D. Dozier, chairman membership committee; James E. Wills, Henry Ray, calendar secretary; L. Rogers, Joe Anderson, chairman of social committee; Frank Mitchell, artist; Leroy Green, Mrs. R. R. Everette, hostess.

BOND PHOTO, LONDON

TO RETURN TO AMERICA—After several years abroad, the Four Harmony Kings, who have been starring on the concert platform and stage in Europe, will return for an extensive American tour in October. Their thousands of friends in the States anxiously await the announcement of their itinerary.

DEFENDER PHOTO

CHICAGO MARBLE CHAMPION—William Reed, 13-year-old schoolboy, representing the L. B. Anderson playground, at 38th St. and Prairie Ave., was crowned marble champion when he emerged victor in the city-wide championship tournament of the playgrounds of Chicago. The silver cup for first place is shown here.

RYMAN PHOTO

GIRL TRACK AND FIELD SQUAD—Tuskegee Institute boasts of a strong track and field squad among the coeds and they have a right to do so because these misses really stood out in the field events, although the relay team was beaten by the Fort Valley (Ga.) girls.