

"NEW NEGRO" WILL BE DISCUSSION SUBJECT

---

"The New Negro" is to be the topic for discussion on Sunday evening at the Community Forum of the Community Church, 12 Park avenue, of which the Rev. John Haynes Holmes is pastor.

The program is scheduled for 8 o'clock, and speakers will include Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, editor of The Crisis; Richard B. Harrison, star of "The Green Pastures," and Mary White Ovington, white, author of "Portraits in Color," a biographical study of famous American Negroes.

---

KELLY MILLER TO TALK AT ST. MARK'S SUNDAY

---

Kelly Miller, columnist and Howard University professor, is to be the chief speaker at a meeting of the St. Mark's Lyceum of St. Mark's M. E. Church, 138th street and Edgecombe avenue, on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Prof. Miller will be introduced by Alderman Fred R. Moore, editor of The New York Age. A special musical and literary program will follow the principal address. W. Clinton Holloway is president of the St. Mark's Lyceum.

---