

Dr. Carey Says At Allen Temple

THE NEGRO IS WILLING TO PAY THE PRICE OF FULL FREEDOM

The Negro is willing to pay whatever price is to be paid for full freedom, Dr. Archibald J. Carey, distinguished churchman, lawyer and political leader of Chicago, said in a Men's Day sermon Sunday, at Allen Temple AME Church, where the Rev. J. A. Middleton is pastor.

"There is a new Negro abroad in the land today," he stated and added: "This new Negro did not come from New York, .... but came out of Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia."

Pastor of Quinn Chapel AME Church in Chicago and a United States delegate to the United Nations during the Eisenhower administration, Dr. Carey told the overflow Men's Day congregation that this new Negro has new courage which challenges the admiration and stirs the consciences of the world.

BRING YOUR BROTHER ALONG

The former alderman from Chicago's Third Ward devoted his message to what he called the warfare for freedom and used for his scriptural text a portion of Genesis 43:3 ".... Ye shal not see my face, except your brother be with you."

These were the words of Joseph to his brothers, who had been sent by their father, Jacob, to buy corn in Egypt during the famine.

Commenting on these words spoken by Joseph, Dr. Carey noted that men need to master the art of bringing their brothers along. He pointed to the great dreams of the world for peace and prosperity and insisted it is impossible to achieve prosperity by setting up walls and added: "there can be no progress trying to hold somebody back."

TACTICS OF TERROR GONE

The Negro has a new resource of courage and the tactics of terror are gone, Dr. Carey said as he emphasized the fact that the new Negro is now willing to pay whatever price is to be paid for full freedom.

He also indicated that the new Negro has set a timetable for righteousness, a timetable of immediacy and declared "right now" is the timetable of righteousness.

In his challenging message to the men of Allen Temple, the men of Atlanta and to all men and women of the Church of God, Dr. Carey pointed to the revolutionary doctrine of Richard Allen. He said the greatest contribution of the Negro has been the establishment of the principle of equality and observing that injustice has ruled too long, envisioned a great victory gathering.

Bishop William Reid Wilkes, presiding prelate of the Sixth Episcopal District of the AME Church, attended the Allen Temple Men's Day service and made timely remarks.

C. C. George presided, and other participants included: W. C. McFarlin, J. Y. Moreland, C. E. Clark, W. L. Dawson, M. C. Bradley, Rev. Middleton and Gen Gay.

The music included several choral selections by the Male Ensemble, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Shy Scott and a solo by A. J. Scott.
