

DRAMA: NEW NEGRO ART THEATRE TO OPEN

The New York Amsterdam News (1922-1938); Jul 10, 1929;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: New York Amsterdam News

pg. 11

DRAMA

New Negro Art Theatre to Open

The New Negro Art Theatre will make another bid for public favor Monday evening when it opens its summer season at the Provincetown Theatre, 133 MacDougal street.

Hemsley Winfield will direct a group of players in Oscar Wilde's "Salome." The director will play the leading role. The theatre will give performances every night except Monday after the opening.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.