

Locke Recalls New Negro Movement

WASHINGTON (Global) — "As I look back on the New Negro Movement, I am at once proud and ashamed," declared Dr. Alain Leroy Locke Wednesday evening at the "Frontiers of Culture" program of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Dr. Locke made this comment on the Movement that he fathered some 25 years ago. After criticizing "ghetto-mindedness," Dr. Locke came out for integration of education, scholarship, and art. and Health Society of Dauphin and Perry Counties," he added. "Every dollar contributed means increased effectiveness in our efforts to control and eliminate TB."

— A Colored Congressman.

Give Scholarships

BOOKER WASHINGTON BIRTHPLACE, Va. — According to a statement made by S. J. Phillips, president of the Booker T. Washington Birthplace Memorial, final arrangements are being made for the beginning of the first classes in vocational training on the plantation where Booker T. Washington was born.