

New Negro Art Theatre at The Alhambra in 'Salome'

The New Negro Art Theatre, that valiant little theatre organization under the direction of Hemeley Winfield, will be at the Alhambra Theatre in a benefit performance of Salome by Oscar Wilde on Friday midnight, March 8. Salome will be preceded by an epic pantomime of "Congo," by Vachel Lindsay. In this Mr. Winfield will interpret savoray voodoo Congo rhythms. The Triangle Trio has been secured to play the Strauss scope from "Salome".

A very thrilling evening is promised by the group of players. Settings and costumes have been designed by the directors. Heading the cast is Mae Lee, Gertrude Mae Hill, Lillian Hawkins Jackson, Ethel Sawyer, Olivia Moore, Albert W. Patrick, Roy de Coverley, Roy Elliot, Shawville Jordan, Andrew Choykee and others.