

"THE NEW NEGRO."

There has been a great deal of talk going around as to the "new negro." Who is this "new negro?" It is said that he is not the "negro" prior to and subsequent to emancipation, but he possesses manhood and is considered a political factor. If it is meant by the "new negro," that he is the man who played such a prominent (?) part in the last Presidential campaign, this "new negro" is not only a failure, but a political bombast and a nonentity in the great body politic. The "new negro" is here to-day and gone to-morrow, He has not only demonstrated that he is a coward, but he has subjected himself to such insults and discrimination that the "old negro" would not tolerate. There is a great deal for the "new negro" to learn. He must show by superior force of character that he is equal to the caucasian at this time.

The "new negro" as he is called is now appealing to administrative powers to aid him, on account of what he demonstrated in the last election. The "new negro" has not been able to demand, while on the other hand the "old negro" did demand under former administrative powers.

Let us dismiss from our mind the idea that the "new negro" possesses superior forces and influence. He is a coward and time will fully prove our assertion. The "new negro" is but a passing show.
