Plain Talk

By ELINOR WHITE

THE NEGRO MUST LIVE THE LIFE THAT NEVER DIES. THE IMMORTALITY OF MAN IS HIS DEEDS ON EARTH. LIVE IT, SAYS ELINOR WHITE.

SOMETIMES we wonder what the average man thinks about himself, bearing on why he should be alive—why he should be a man? From what we gather it seems that just a few of us who come into the world realize how important it is to live—the few are those who have left behind them immortality; they whose deeds, work and accomplishments shall never die, because they are perpetuated in the hearts of men and in the marble, bronze and granite which we erect as monuments to those who have climbed to the eternal heights. Still Trying to Inspire.

I am still trying to inspire the Negro race to a sense of responsibility—being a man. We want every Negro in the world to realize that he is here for a purpose that he himself must find; that he must live so that he may never die as hundreds of millions die century by century to be forgotten forever. Building a New Race.

We are making an effort to build a new race, a race that is to hold its own among the groups of men. If we are to successfully accomplish this then we must also build a new character. We can hardly establish such a race, as we hope for, with the spineless, objectiveless and purposeless Negro of the past and in the majority at present. We must start with the new Negro whose outlook on life is positive; who realizes that he is creator of his own realm and in it he must rule as a master, as a lord, as a sovereign.

It was Henry van Dyke who said: "There is only one way to get ready for immortality, and that is to love this life and live it as bravely and faithfully and cheerfully as we can." Negroes Must Live Bravely.

Black men the world over, must hold up their heads, look at the stars and the sun and climb to them in accomplishments. The opportunity and the privilege are ours. Seize them now! Let no tide push us asunder in the mighty current of life. Let us realize that life is a competition between races; between people; between nations and between empires. Select your race; select your national and imperial idealism and then hew to the line to accomplish only to your interest and to your good. The Negro must not be side-tracked any more; his purpose must be positive. A United Race.

We should be working for a united four hundred million race; we should be working for a redeemed country; we should be working for the establishment of an African imperialism that shall not die, but shall carry Africa's sons and daughters to the final end of things when the great God shall call man to his judgment and demand of him an accounting of his sojourn here. Yes, the Black Man must give a good account of himself. The Negro must present his gifts to God like the faithful servant of the talents. We can do this only when we stand together united as one people. Let us work toward this end. Please!

We Apologize

In last week's edition it was stated that Mrs. J. Truitte is president of president of the Horace Mann P.T.A. This was an error. The president of the P.T.A. is Mrs. Lula Holloway.

We are sorry for the error. Mrs. Truitte is the treasurer of that organization.
